

MARC Record D'Ann Campbell Army Nurse Corps Recruitment Poster Collection (MC26)

040	# #	$e DACS
099	# #	$a MC26
100	1 #	$a Campbell, D'Ann
245	0 0	$a D'Ann Campbell Army Nurse Corps Recruitment Poster Collection $f 1918-1945 $g 1945
300	# #	$a 2 boxes (19 posters) $c 36 x 24 x 3 $f cu ft.
351	# #	$a Arranged in three series: World War I posters – World War II posters (various recruitment agencies) -- World War II posters (Army Nurse Corps)
506	0 #	$a This collection is open to the public by appointment.
520	2 #	$a Posters issued to recruit new enlistment for the American military during both World Wars. The bulk of the collection focuses on World War II and Army Nurse Corps recruitment.
520	3 #	$a This assembled collection of posters was originally acquired by Dr. D'Ann Campbell. The posters were issued by the U.S. government to entice new recruits, they convey the various assignments and accomplishments that women could experience as enlisted military nurses. The posters were intended for display during wartime in public spaces and could commonly be found in libraries, post offices, and schools.
524	# #	$a D'Ann Campbell Army Nurse Corps Recruitment Poster Collection (MC26), Bellevue Alumnae Center for Nursing History, Foundation of New York State Nurses, Guilderland, NY
540	# #	$a This collection is open to the public by appointment. Please consult the repository for information about publishing of any materials from this collection.
541	1 #	The items in this collection were donated to the Bellevue Alumnae Center for Nursing History, Foundation of the New York State Nurses, by Dr. D'Ann Campbell in one accession in 2000.
544	1 #	$d Records on New York State Nurses Military Service (MC7). $n This series includes accessions of memorabilia, artifacts, photos, memoirs, and documents related to military nursing, including WWI & WWII records.
545	# #	$a Dr. D'Ann Campbell is a scholar and educator. Her primary areas of research interest include women's history, social and military history, and women in the military in the 20 th century, especially World War II. Dr. Campbell has played an advisory role in integrating women into the military at West Point Academy. She was also an advisor for: The Army War College, the Air Force Academy, and the Secretary of the Air Force. As dean of academics at the United States Coast Guard Academy, Dr. D'Ann Campbell became the first woman to serve in that capacity at any of the military service academies in the United States.
555	0 #	$a Finding aid $b available from the Foundation of New York State Nurses and online
600	1 4	$a Campbell, D'Ann

MARC Record D'Ann Campbell Army Nurse Corps Recruitment Poster Collection (MC26)

610	1 0	$a American Red Cross
653	# 2	$a Army Nurse Corps
650	# 7	$a nurses $2 AAT
650	# 0	$a military nursing $x history $z United States
650	# 0	$a women in war
650	# 0	$a World War, 1914-1918 $v posters
650	# 0	$a World War, 1939-1945 $v posters
610	2 0	$a United States. Army $x recruiting and enlistment $v posters
655	# 0	$v posters
851	# #	$a Bellevue Alumnae Center for Nursing History, Foundation of New York State Nurses. $c 2113 Western Avenue, Suite 1 Guilderland, New York 12084-9559